SOLON ANSWERS GAMBLING CHARGE

Representative Adams Says He Did Not Know Poker Was Played.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 26.—The trial of state representative Thad. Adams, charged with permitting gambling in his rooms at the Driskill during a legislative session, was resumed this morning. The defense introduced representatives Schuler and Miller to prove Adams' constant attendance at the sessions.

They brought out on the stand that Julius Hertwig, of San Antonio, and J. H. North, deceased, told them that chips were in the room assigned to Adams. The witnesses said that Jake Wolters, of Houston, Tom Simmons, of Fort Worth, John Duncan, of Houston, J. L. Storey, of Lockhart, and others participated.

Adams who testified in his own behalf today said he and Hertwig had taken rooms together to cut their expenses but that he did not know poker was played. He said the men named as participants had been in his rooms but they had not all played. Three hours, have been allowed for the argument. The case will go to the jury this afternoon.

Medicines that aid nature are always most successful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the passages and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

PECOS COUNTY TRACT
SOLD FOR $118,400.
San Angelo, Tex., Jan. 26.—H. F. Mayne, of this city, today sold a tract of 27 sections of land in Pecos county, to Jeff and Walter Smith, for $118,400. The land went at $5 per acre.

LAS CRUCES PERSONALS.
Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 26.—Hon. Isidoro Armijo and wife went down to El Paso this forenoon to get their little son and daughter, who have been visiting there several days.

Ed F. Wentz is in El Paso on business. John Wahlhall went down to El Paso this forenoon. Mrs. Vaneigrift is visiting in El Paso today. H. B. Chaplin went down to El Paso this forenoon.

DR. GARRISON GOES UP TO SANTA FE
Activity in College Circles Among Students and Instructors.

Agricultural College, N. M., Jan. 26.—The Musical club met with Rev. and Mrs. Bloom, at their Mesilla Park home, the recital subject being the "Master Song." The soloists were Mesdames Wooten, Broadbush, Branigan and Bloom, and Messrs. Stevens and Wooten. For variety there were selections by a male quartet and a mixed quartet (male).

The subject was treated historically by Mr. Bloom, who introduced each number with data about the composer, etc. The business portion of the meeting was devoted to committee work and planning and looking forward to the operatic treat in store for the Mesilla valley when Madame Yaw comes, next month.

On Tuesday evening at the home of Jesse Mundell, a "stag" oyster supper was given as a farewell to "Frank" Isles from the latter's bachelorhood. The lucky girl is Miss Ingelbloom, who has for some time been making her home at Old Mesilla.

Dr. Garrison returned on yesterday's train from Santa Fe, where he presided over the territorial meeting of the board of education.

The junior class is busily engaged on their publication, "The Swastika," the college annual. Most of the contracts have been let, and the assignments have been made.

The freshman class is all up in a flurry. The discovery has been made that their class president is not a freshman, but a sophomore.

C. P. Henry, '08, of Yazoo, Miss., has just closed a deal with A. P. Bjerregaard, whereby Mr. Henry comes into possession of Mr. Bjerregaard's property near the college.

Frank Isles surprised all his friends by taking a wife. It happened very quietly last Sunday.

Miss Leticia Foster is now pianist with the college orchestra. That organization entertained the general assembly at the chapel hour on Tuesday.

The girls' basketball team will leave on Friday evening's north bound train for Silver City to play the normal school girls Saturday.

The warm weather is bringing out the baseball and track men. Tennis is also being indulged in.

A large crowd of students went to Las Cruces last evening to see the North Bros. Stock company. This evening, following the show, the floor will be cleared and everybody given the opportunity to dance.

BACK FROM HUNT.
Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 26.—F. M. Hayner and F. H. Davis returned from their hunt down in Mexico last night and report a very successful trip, having bagged quite a number of ducks and geese.

COMET IS SEEN AGAIN BY THE LAS CRUCESITES.
Las Cruces, N. M., Jan. 26.—The comet showed up plainly last night, after being hidden the past few days on account of clouds that covered the western horizon in the evening. The head was still down and the tail up, and pointing a little more to the north than when first seen. The tail appeared, as measured with the naked eye, to be about 200 feet long.

NEW MEXICO DISMISSES TEACHERS ON CHARGES OF INTOXICATION

Santa Fe, N. M., Jan. 26.—The territorial board of education has revoked the licenses to teach of Jesus Maria Jaramillo, of El Rito, and Jose Ortiz y Baza, of Santa Fe county, on the charge of intoxication.

Similar action will be taken against two female teachers in Torrance county, who were reported as having been intoxicated after a dance, it being the intention of the school authorities to dismiss all teachers who over indulge in intoxicants.

County Judge Eyal was authorized to prepare quit claim deeds for right of way along the new Clint-Fabens road.

A petition from residents of Clint for the construction of a road from Clint to Socorro was referred to the county judge for investigation.

It was ordered that $200 be set aside for the improvement of the Pilar road, from Ysleta to the foothills.

New Voting Precinct.
It was ordered that if 20 taxpayers can be found in the eastern part of the county, a new election precinct be established there. The county decided to furnish lumber to Messrs. Cadena and Apodaca for the purpose of constructing a flume to carry water to their land over the county road.

County treasurer C. E. Kelly was ordered to refund $40.95 to A. Escobitos, this being the amount received in excess of taxes for the sale of his property.

An order granting Andres Garcia, an old resident of Ysleta, $4 per month for three months was passed.

Using Unfinished Road.
Galley and Clark complained that people had been using the new road from Ysleta to Clint which has not been completed and further complained that posts which they had put up along the road had been stolen. They asked for protection.

Commissioner Perez said that Juan Salcido had closed the "Island" road and it was ordered that he be arrested unless he reopen the road at once.

County Judge Eyal said that he would submit a budget of expenses for the care of county poor at the next meeting.

A. T. Duncan was appointed constable at Sierra Blanca.

T. & P. Road.
County road engineer Meadows submitted a map showing that C. O. Coffin, C. E. Kelly, J. M. Wyatt and A. Kraemer had taken up from six to 50 feet of the right-of-way of the T. & P. road which the county was to use for a road. Judge Eyal said that these men had agreed to surrender sufficient land for the building of a road.

MEXICAN BANK FAILS TO OPEN ITS DOORS.
Mexico City, Mex., Jan. 26.—The United States Banking company was last night suspended from the clearing house upon its failure to make a settlement of the day's business. The bank was given until 3:30 today to make up its deficit, which is said to amount to 400,000 pesos. It failed to open this morning, but M. Eliazar, vice president of the company, expresses the belief that the bank will be able to pay dollar for dollar
